Become Part of Europe's Largest Antiques Centre...

A warm welcome to Hemswell Antique Centres

Hemswell Antique Centres is Europe's largest and most professionally managed operation. Forward thinking and innovative in its approach, over 400 dealers now exhibit within four main buildings.

Established in 1986 by my late father and stepmother, Rex and Nepi Miller, I have been at the helm since 1999 overseeing and directing operations.

We supply to many private clients worldwide, retail markets and boutique hotels, as well as museums, television production companies, and institutions including the National Trust. We are seen by interior designers as a one-stop shop operation delivering to the entire UK and to over 20 different countries. Great relationships built with overseas trade offering exemplary customer service.

Have you ever considered leasing space / cabinets in a Centre, thus allowing you to focus on other aspects of your business? Please feel free to contact me for an impartial chat.

Assuring you of our best attention.

Delivery & Logistics

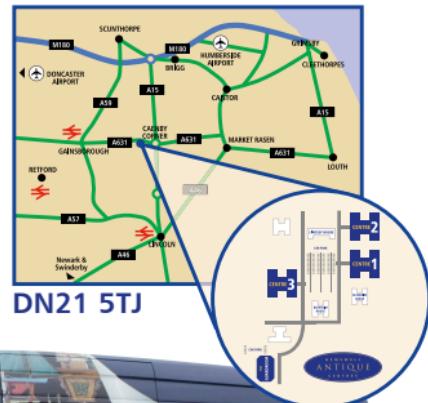

All sold items are moved into our new purpose built secure central store. The majority of UK deliveries are carried out via our own dedicated home delivery team in new Mercedes vehicles which are fully tracked.

Overseas sold items are wrapped and packaged and are either collected or delivered direct to Shipping Agents all over the UK with whom we have built great working relationships over the years. All logistics are handled on behalf of all dealers at no charge.

Many overseas buyers are often visiting our website, purchasing prior to visiting in person while the fairs are taking place. Hemswell Antique Centres provide a free complimentary delivery service into both local fairs at Lincoln and Newark, relieving any stress for dealers and therefore enhancing the whole buying experience at Hemswell.
